BY SARAH AINSWORTH

El Segundo-based photographer and painter Sarah Ainsworth specializes in nature and conservation photography, with a deep focus on the local environment. Since 2023, she has worked with the El Segundo Blue Butterfly Conservancy to document the endangered El Segundo Blue butterfly and conservation efforts to protect its fragile habitat. Whether photographing coastal scenes, the majesty of our public lands, or the beauty of her garden's blooms, her award-winning work reflects a lifelong passion for connecting with and protecting the natural world.
