Beginner Broadway Dance for Adults- Telling a Story Through Movement (18+ Years)

NEW!

Location: Joslyn Center

Instructor: Heather Rosario

Step into the spotlight and experience the magic of Broadway – where every movement tells a story. In this class, we go beyond steps and choreography to explore how dance becomes storytelling. You'll learn how to connect emotion, character, and intention to movement – discovering how a simple gesture, turn, or glance can express a whole world of feeling. Whether you're dancing to the soaring passion of Chicago, the playful joy of Grease or the heart of Westside Story you'll learn to bring narrative alive through rhythm, energy, and presence. Each class blends Broadway-style choreography with acting and musicality, helping you embody the characters and stories that make musical theatre so unforgettable. Perfect for anyone who wants to move, perform, and feel the story within every step. Because... in Broadway dance, you don't just dance – you live the story.
