

El Segundo Cultural Development Program presents

Poetry Inspired by Water:

A Generative Workshop by
El Segundo Poet Laureate Kweku Abimbola

THURSDAY, MARCH 19

5:30 PM, IN THE LIBRARY'S READING LOUNGE

Are you curious about water and water conservation? Do you wish to learn more about indigenous and Afro-indigenous concepts of water? Join us for an evening of "documentary poetry" where participants will use poetry to explore the relationships between humans, water, and water pollution.

Participants will have the opportunity to write and share poems, celebrating water in all forms. This is a free, no registration required workshop intended for ages 18 years and up.

Recommended Materials

- Writing utensil
- Notebook/paper or laptop
- All reading materials will be provided during the workshop

El Segundo Public Library
